GOLDSBORO HIGH

SO

SCHOOL

ALMA MATER

There's a song in the air,
Goldsboro High School;
We can hear it everywhere,
Goldsboro High School.
In your school or at home,
Any place you chance to roam,
Goldsboro, Goldsboro High School!

Then hurrah for our school
Let us sing; let us sing;
And we'll up with a cheer
Let it ring; let it ring.
For we're faithful and true
To our colors white and blue,
Goldsboro, Goldsboro High School!

Though we're mighty hard to beat,
Goldsboro High School;
Yet we bravely bear defeat,
Goldsboro High School.
We go forward, yes, we do,
And the cause is due to you,
Goldsboro, Goldsboro High School.

Two pages are too small a space with which to express our sincere admiration and respect for one who came to Goldsboro High School some 24 years ago and helped make it the place we know and remember. From our first days in G. H. S. she has constantly shown her genuine interest, innate kindness and deep wisdom toward our class. These traits have continually followed us up to this final period; therefore, with the same love she has shown us, we dedicate our 1951 Gohisca to:

100 years

MRS. B. W. COX

Here is your Gohisca
And as the title shows,
It's about the G. H. S.
That everyone knows.

The book is complete;
We hope we have in it
Each little phase of
Your high school minute.

THE PETITE WALTZ

(La Petite Valse)

MEN'S CHORUS

BY JOE HEYNE

A cartoon character of a young man with curly hair, wearing a suit and bow tie, stands on the left side of the page, holding a microphone. He is positioned next to a large musical staff that spans the width of the page. The staff contains musical notation for a waltz, including treble and bass clefs, key signatures, and various notes and rests. The character is also positioned next to a smaller musical staff on the left side of the page. The background of the page is filled with musical notation, including various notes, rests, and dynamic markings like mf and p.

CLASS SONG

We are the Class of '51,
Onward we will strive
Soon our victories will be won,
Fraternity will thrive.
In our hearts we have devotion
For classmates in our school.
Proudly we'll receive promotion,
Green and White will rule.

All for one, and one for all,
Our motto we praise.
Goldsboro High School, we will call
Our school, and our banners raise.
Memories we'll share together,
Of our school days.
Alma Mater, praise for ever
Sing to you always.

OUR BEST TO YOU

The ability to dress well is quite an art;
George Langston leaves Bobby Bryan this upstart.

I, George Blackman, leave my place in D.E.,
So Melvin Sauls may get a degree.

We think Steve Dail should calm down a bit,
So we leave him Carlyle's place to fit.

Arnold Stanton wills his perfect attendance,
To Billy Allen with a great dependance.

Sam has height and big feet, too;
He wills Bud his shoes (for a canoe).

Jane Buie leaves Sally Edgerton her special diet,
On how to be slim, hoping she'll try it.

Bow legs, as you know, means cute,
So Dawson just leaves, with no dispute.

Good personality and smiling lips,
Martha leaves to all Junior drips.

From Vinnie Lee Boyette to Nancy Combs,
She leaves her giggles, and no groans.

Mousey is talented but a little shy;
He wills his talent to Aulsa Flye

Jerry Price leaves her friendly smile,
For Ann Marlow to carry awhile.

I, David Liles leave to Frank (Boo Boo) McInnis,
My height and voice with my deepest sincereness.

Kenneth Allen leaves his manly way,
For Morris Gurley to display

The Be Bop hair cut of Dot Wall,
Is left for Nell Scott to install.

Living the records he did make,
Bobby Watson will at last graduate.

George Lynch leaves his dual lips and disposition,
To D. C. Daughtry in good condition.

Rod Miller leaves his determination,
To Jimmy Cavanaugh with admiration.

John Parker leaves to Jessine Hart,
His most infamous, silly art.

Harold Kadis leaves his perpetual motion,
To Billy Gibson with kindest devotion.

A great swimming ability, left by Shirley Pate,
Goes to Rena Gaïne in hopes that she'll be great.

Going with football players, Joy set a pace,
So gladly she leaves Peggy Hawkins her place.
Klutzs' have been in our school for a long time,
So Jean just leaves to make this thing rhyme.
For defensive basketball you need speed;
Neil leaves to Charley this good deed.
Getting along with teachers, we sometimes find hard;
From Vick to Marshall comes this kindest regard.
With fondest memories does Barbara Keith leave,
And only the faculty left to grieve.
Jessie Ray leaves his friendly smile,
To Montee Maddox for that's the style.
Sara leaves to Happy all her pep,
Hoping by next year he'll get hep.
From Caleb to Charlie comes this warming delight,
A seat on the fifty each Friday night.
To Sara Markham, Lydia kindly donates,
Her quietness, for the sake of classmates.
Frances Malpass leaves her quiet way,
To Emily Warrick, hoping it'll stay.
Earl Radford's one talent he leaves behind,
For Rita Best Wood, his most brilliant mind.
Always energetic and full of fun,
Louis Hallow leaves this to anyone.
Anderson leaves his position on the team,
To any boy enough on the beam.
Betty Best leaves her nice and friendly way,
For rising seniors to carry on each day.
At going steady Nan was a Queen;
This talent she leaves to dear Jessine.
Good personality and looks has Joyce Britt;
She leaves these to Freshmen for their benefit.
In life, in sport, she stands the test;
Sara Casey leaves this to Donald Best.

THROUGH THE YEARS

It's been four long and wonderful years and we now find ourselves all ready for Pomp and Circumstance. Makes you sorta sick inside, doesn't it?

Do you remember in '47 when we first walked the halls of G. H. S.? How you felt like a little flea on a big dog? If it had not been for our fine class officers the struggle would have been terrific. As every class faces the problem of money we also had our share of the worry, but we quickly sponsored a Queen and King contest. The price of a penny a vote soon raised the dollar mark with Ed Bass and Nancy Hamil reigning over our Freshman social.

After three months of the usual summer fun we, the class of '51, got back into the school swing. Now, we had someone to be our underdog. Therefore, we were quite pleased to be in charge of "Freshman Week." As a means for raising money an auction was held in February with Coach Doak as head auctioneer. Everything from hairpins to pineapple cakes was sold that day.

Our Junior year? Well, you know how it is!! Upper classmen and all . . . We sponsored the Halloween Festival for the school. This included a cake walk, dancing, fortune telling, House of Horror, and prizes for various costumes. A "small killing" was made which went toward money for our Junior-Senior. Don't think our class isn't great. Who led in the magazine drive that year? You're so absolutely right . . . For our Junior-Senior, "The Return of the Vagabond" was presented and was quite a success. We also took part in the stunt night sponsored by the N. H. S. The circus theme was used including elephants, tightrope walkers and such. Always "clowning around." Well, everybody, who is anybody, knows that we had the best Junior-Senior this town had ever seen. They wanted our decorating for big time Broadway. We ended the year by ordering our class rings.

"You lowly piece of filth" . . . Oh yes! We are Seniors now. That was one of the better members speaking to a Junior. This being our last chance to make our mark at G. H. S., each of us welcomed the arrival of our class rings which at last made us realize that we were mighty Seniors. Our Senior play, "Distant Drums," followed this and was really a performance. It revealed the hard trials endured by our forefathers. There will never be a class day as ours was. All of us trying to be happy when we knew it was so close to the end.

A collage of black and white photographs of students, likely from a mid-20th-century yearbook. The central text "THE CAMERA" is written vertically in a large, serif font. The photographs depict various student activities and portraits. At the top left, two boys in white shirts and ties stand together. To their right, a girl in a light-colored dress is shown. Further right, a group of students is gathered around a large, vintage-style camera on a tripod. Below these, there are several individual portraits of girls in various outfits, including a girl in a dark dress and a girl in a light-colored dress. In the center, a boy in a striped shirt and a boy in a white shirt and tie are featured. To the right of them, a girl in a patterned dress is shown. Below the striped-shirt boy, two girls are standing together. In the bottom left, a large group of students is posed together. To the right of this group, a boy in a white shirt and tie is shown. In the bottom right, a girl in a dark dress is shown. The overall theme is photography and student life.

THIS THE '51 GOHISCA COULD NOT HAVE BEEN: WITHOUT THE PATIENCE AND ENDURANCE OF MRS. JOHN C. PATE, WHO ADVISED OUR STAFF OR WITHOUT THE PHOTOGRAPHY OF HOMER BALL, GEORGE JOHNSON, AND EDWARD WILLIAMS, WHO, WITH THEIR PICTURES, MADE OUR BOOK THE STORY OF G.H.S. THAT IT IS. AND TO ALL OF YOU WHO DID THOSE LITTLE NECESSARY THINGS WITHOUT RECOGNITION, WE ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR WORK AND THE WONDERFUL JOB YOU DID! HERE AT THE FINALE WE ARE VERY PROUD TO SAY HERE IS THE G.H.S. WE KNEW.

THANK YOU
